

Internship in Switzerland

Your chance to start a promising career!

August – October 2017 (3 months)

Your benefits:

- Insight into a well known Swiss company
- Practical training in food safety laboratories, get to know professional work methods and take on concrete tasks and responsibilities

Applicant requirements and skills:

- Namibian citizen with valid passport
- Registered NUST 3rd or 4th year students in Biomedical or Environmental Health and Safety
- Good grades and good English skills (written and oral), knowledge of German or French are an advantage
- Ambitious and hard working, performance oriented, vision of personal development and career goals
- Spontaneous, flexible and open minded with interest for other cultures

Application Procedure / Submission:

- Completed application form
- Complete CV (use template)
- Results of the last 2 years
- Motivation letter
- Copy of the valid passport
- Application forms and CV templates are available from Nico Smit @ nasmit@nust.na
- Email your complete application by February 28, 2017, to Nico Smit, nasmit@nust.na.